ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT – SECTIONS 64 AND 65
AUTHORISATION OF TRAFFIC SIGNS AND SPECIAL DIRECTIONS

The Secretary of State for Transport, in exercise of his powers under Sections 64 and 65 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, for the control of traffic at Station Row, Teynham, Kent, hereby:-

1. authorises the erection at or within the vicinity of the site marked with a red cross on the attached plan numbered GT50/104/0006-1 of a light signal (hereinafter referred to as “the authorised signal”) conforming as to size, colour and character with that shown in the attached drawing numbered NP 3015; and
2. directs that the authorised signal may only be placed at the said site if the apparatus (including the contents of all instructions stored in it) used in connection with it is of a type which has been agreed by the Secretary of State as appropriate to the sites and application; and
3. directs, without prejudice to any statutory provision to the like effect, that it is a condition of this authorisation that the erection of the authorised signal at or near the said sites shall continue to have effect only until such day as may be appointed by one month’s notice given by the Secretary of State in writing to the traffic authority for the removal or alteration of the authorised signal and on that day the said authorisation shall, without prejudice to the giving of any further authorisation or direction, cease to have effect.

Section 36 of the Road Traffic Act 1988 shall apply to the authorised signal as it applies to the signal shown in diagram 3014 in Schedule 8 to the Traffic Signs Regulations 2002 (Part I of SI 2002/3113, “the 2002 Regulations”).

GT50/104/0006

The provisions of Regulations 12, 39(1) and 40 of the 2002 Regulations shall apply to the authorised signal in the same manner as they apply to the signal shown in diagram 3014 in Schedule 8 to those Regulations.
