Authorisation of traffic signs and special directions

Accessible transcript

Secretary of State for Transport's traffic authorisation of traffic signs for the purpose of informing users of the crossing prerequisites and controlling traffic in the vicinity of public footpath and bridleway level crossings, for which Network Rail is the rail infrastructure manager and traffic authority.

The following pages contain a copy of the text from the Secretary of State for Transport's traffic authorisation regarding the above traffic signs.

A scanned copy of the signed authorisation and supporting documents from the application are appended to this letter. The supporting material is submitted to the Department for Transport by a third party. You should refer to the party involved for accessible copies of the supporting material.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT – SECTIONS 64 AND 65
AUTHORISATION OF TRAFFIC SIGNS AND SPECIAL DIRECTIONS

The Secretary of State for Transport, in exercise of his powers under Sections 64 and 65 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, for the purpose of informing users of the crossing prerequisites and controlling traffic in the vicinity of public footpath, cycleway, bridleway and user worked level crossings, for which Network Rail Infrastructure Limited (Company No. 02904587) is the traffic authority, hereby:-

1. authorises the erection at or on approach to the type of level crossings mentioned above of any traffic sign conforming as to size, colour and character of those prescribed in the Private Crossings (Signs and Barriers) Regulations 2023 (S.I. 2023/1112, “the 2023 Regulations”) and any associated equipment integrated with the traffic sign; and
2. directs, without prejudice to any statutory provision to the like effect, that it is a condition of this authorisation that the erection of the authorised sign at or near the said sites shall continue to have effect only until such day as may be appointed by one month’s notice given by the Secretary of State in writing to the traffic authority for the removal or alteration of the authorised sign and on that day the said authorisation shall, without prejudice to the giving of any further authorisation or direction, cease to have effect.

The provisions of Regulations 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 of the 2023 Regulations shall apply to a sign erected by virtue of para 1, in the same manner as they apply to the respective sign shown in the 2023 Regulations.
